

Mental Health Practitioner

Coastal Carolina University is accepting applications for the following position: Mental Health Practitioner (Student Services Program Coordinator II) in the Office of Counseling Services.

Duties include, but are not limited to: providing psychological assessment, individual/couples/group counseling, and crisis intervention to students who are experiencing psychological, developmental, career, and educational concerns; providing outreach and consultative services to university students, faculty, and staff; developing liaisons with various campus groups and acting as an advocate for underserved populations such as ethnic minorities (such as African-American, Latino, Asian-American, Native-American) GLBT students, international students, and other students from myriad cultures and socio-economic backgrounds; training and supervising peer educators in provision of outreach programming; providing exceptional customer service to all constituents, including but not limited to, faculty, staff, students, visitors and the community at large; assuming other duties and responsibilities as assigned by the Director of Counseling Services; providing on-call counseling services on a rotational basis; and documenting all clinical services.

Requirements: Master's degree in Psychology, Counseling, Social Work or closely related field is required. Must be eligible or currently licensed to practice in South Carolina in a directly related field. Two (2) years of related experience is preferred. Demonstrated record of successful performance in and commitment to the practice of counseling with both individuals and groups is preferred. Extensive experience with group counseling and case management is preferred. A successful candidate should also possess skills related to: assessment and interventions for a wide range of psychological disorders and developmental problems; individual, couples and group counseling; public presentations and community outreach methods; consultation; and crisis intervention. Additionally, a successful candidate should also possess: competency with culturally diverse populations; and the ability to engage in continued learning to stay abreast of changes in counseling/psychology field.

Interested applicants may apply on-line at <http://jobs.coastal.edu> or apply in the Office of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity, Coastal Carolina University, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Applicants should submit a cover letter, resume and the names and contact information for three (3) professional references. Deadline: June 3, 2015.

Coastal Carolina University is an EO/AA employer.

Full-time position with benefits (CB70). State pay band: 05. Normal work hours: Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Must be flexible to meet special scheduling needs of the University.