DEPARTMENT OF COUNSELING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

Counselor (Licensed Psychologist)
Tenure Track 12 month faculty position

California State University Fullerton is seeking applications for a tenure-track counselor (psychologist) faculty position in Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS). Under the general supervision of the Director or designee, the selected candidate will provide a full range of clinical services and clinical supervision of graduate trainees (65%) and participate in campus outreach and other projects, maintain professional and scholarly activities and service to the department, student affairs division and university community (35%). While this appointment has faculty status for collective bargaining purposes, it is a full-time, 12 month clinical position with limited teaching or research responsibilities. Successful candidates will have a doctoral degree in psychology, be currently licensed, and have expertise in addressing a wide range of developmental and psychological needs of a diverse college student population.

Position

Direct Counseling Services: Provide intake clinical interviews and psycho-diagnostic assessments, short-term individual and couples counseling, group counseling and psycho-educational groups, clinical triage and crisis intervention, case management and collaboration with a consulting psychiatrist, and referrals to and consultation with academic and disability counselors and health center professionals on-campus as well as off-campus mental health professionals and agencies.

Outreach Services: Develop and provide outreach programs (e.g., classroom presentations; workshops), including occasional evening or weekend programs, for a metropolitan, largely commuter campus with a highly diverse student population; participate in the development and implementation of assigned special outreach projects (e.g., mental health screening days; prevention projects).

Consultation: Provide expertise to the university community regarding issues that affect the educational, developmental and psychological well-being of students; provide consultation services and occasional in-service training to faculty, administrators, and student leaders on mental health and developmental issues.

Supervision and Training: Provide clinical supervision to counseling trainees (pre-doctoral interns) co-facilitate outreach programs and groups with all levels of supervisees; provide periodic training and educational seminars for all levels of supervisees.

Required Qualifications

Education/License

- Doctorate in Counseling or Clinical Psychology from an accredited program.
- California license to practice psychology

Experience and Skills: The candidate must demonstrate experience with the following:

- Issues pertinent to a diverse college student population.
- Clinical Supervisory experience.
- Intake clinical interviews, including psycho-diagnostic assessment, case conceptualization, and treatment plan formulation, for students with a broad spectrum of psychological problems, ranging from adjustment issues to major psychiatric disorders.
- Short-term individual, couples and group counseling, and crisis intervention for psychological emergencies and high risk clients.
- Knowledge, sensitivity and ability to work with students from diverse ethnic, cultural, sexual orientation, and socio-economic backgrounds, ranging in age.
- Ability to develop and implement a broad range of outreach services, including consultation/mediation interventions, training modules, workshops, and presentations to the campus community on mental health issues and stigma reduction approaches.
- Working effectively as a member of a multi-disciplinary team of professionals
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- Computer skills for electronic record keeping.
- Must successfully pass a background check and pre-employment fingerprinting.
