

Counseling & Health Services
Therapist
Ball State University

The Ball State University Counseling Center is looking for an experienced therapist to join our growing and innovative team. Be part of a team that promotes the health and well-being of college students without relying on third party payers for reimbursement. We provide a flexible and supportive work environment, with opportunities to develop new skills. The Ball State Counseling Center values diversity and social justice and encourages applicants from a variety of diverse backgrounds to apply.

The ideal candidate will be a licensed therapist (psychologist, social worker, mental health counselor) in Indiana and have at least one year of experience working in a university counseling center or with young adults. Experience working with anxiety disorders, student athletes, or GLBTQ community is highly desirable. Interested parties should apply.

Minimum qualifications: Master's or doctoral degree in counseling or clinical psychology, social work or related field from an accredited college or university. Completion of relevant practica and internships.

Candidates must have current authorization to be employed in the U.S. without employer sponsorship.

Apply online at: <http://bsu.peopleadmin.com/postings/14776> Include the following documents with your application: cover letter addressed to Dr. William Betts and resume. Although the option to upload copies of transcripts is available in the application, an official, original transcript showing the highest related degree earned is required at time of hire. Additionally, a degree verification will be ordered at time of hire. Review of applications will begin immediately and will be accepted through September 17, 2018.
