

The University of Southern Indiana's Counseling Center invites applicants for a Staff Counselor or Staff Psychologist.

Essential functions:

- Evaluate mental, emotional, and behavioral health
- Provide therapy/counseling on an individual and group basis
- Triage and evaluate mental health crises
- Document all clinical contacts and services
- Engage in outreach activities

Essential knowledge and skills:

- Counselor: Master's in counseling, psychology, social work or other related human services area is required. Must be licensed (or eligible for licensure within agreed upon time period) as a clinical social worker, mental health counselor, or marriage and family therapist in the state of Indiana.
- Psychologist: Ph.D. or Psy.D. in clinical or counseling psychology from an APA-approved doctoral program; ABD considered. APA-approved pre-doctoral internship is preferred. Must be licensed as a Psychologist (with HSPP designation) or eligible for licensure within agreed upon time period.
- Must have training as a generalist, but will also have developed specialized skills for working with certain populations or presenting concerns.
- Significant knowledge of psychopathology, as well as developmental issues facing traditional and non-traditional students.
- Significant skills in assessment and treatment of multiple presenting concerns, diagnoses and degrees of pathology.
- Strong knowledge of Indiana mental health law.
- Must be responsive to a high demand for services while managing unexpected crisis situations.

To learn more about the position and to apply, please visit www.usi.edu/jobs.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer, the University of Southern Indiana considers all qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy or marital status, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, or any other category protected by law or identified by the University as a protected class.