COMMITMENT to DIVERSITY

The successful candidate will demonstrate support for diversity, equity and inclusiveness as well as participate in maintaining a respectful, positive work environment.

ROLE of the POSITION

Student Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) at the University of Nevada Las Vegas is seeking to fill a staff psychologist position. CAPS is an IACS-accredited center within the Student Wellness unit that includes the departments of health center, behavioral health, women's center, health promotions, disability resource center, and office of student conduct. This is a unique opportunity to work within a dynamic and integrated service delivery model that offers comprehensive wellness services to a diverse student population. This is a full-time, 12-month position.

General responsibilities for this position include, but are not limited to time-effective individual, couples, and group therapy; crisis assessment and intervention; consultation, liaison, and outreach programming to the university community; supervision of doctoral interns and graduate trainees; and participation on divisional and university committees. The center has an APA-accredited Doctoral Psychology Internship program.

QUALIFICATIONS

This position requires a Doctorate in Counseling or Clinical Psychology that is from an APA-accredited program at a regionally accredited college or university and at least one year of related professional experience. Completion of an APA-accredited doctoral internship is preferred.

Candidates are required to be licensed as a Psychologist in Nevada within 6 months from the date of hire for licensed applicants and licensed within 8 or 18 months for postdoctoral and new doctoral graduates, respectively.

The successful candidate will have strong clinical assessment and crisis intervention skills, competency in working with diverse student population, demonstrated skills in supervision and training, and experience in brief therapy and group counseling. All candidates must pass a background screening.

Preferences for this position includes demonstrated experience with couples counseling, step-care treatment, online assisted therapy and/or assessment/testing.

SALARY RANGE

Salary competitive with those at similarly situated institutions. Position is contingent upon funding.

APPLICATION DETAILS

Submit a letter of interest, a detailed resume listing qualifications and experience, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of at least three professional references who may be contacted. Applicants should fully describe their qualifications and experience, with specific reference to each of the minimum and preferred qualifications because this is the information on which the initial review of materials will be based.

Although this position will remain open until filled, review of candidates' materials will begin on April 15, 2019 and best consideration will be gained for materials submitted prior to that date. Materials should be addressed to Dr. Luke Jensen, Search Committee Chair, and are to be submitted online as we do not accept emailed materials. For assistance with the application process, please contact UNLV Human Resources at (702) 895-3504 or applicant.inquiry@unlv.edu.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR INTERNAL NSHE CANDIDATES
